Here's how the 5-stage purification works:

1. Sediment Filter: Captures larger particles like dust, dirt, and rust, extending the life of subsequent filters.

2. Granular Activated Carbon (GAC) Filter: Absorbs chlorine, organic chemicals, and other impurities that cause unpleasant taste and odor.
3. Block Carbon Filter: Provides further filtration, removing residual chlorine and fine sediment for enhanced water clarity.
4. Reverse Osmosis (RO) Membrane: The heart of the system, this semi-permeable membrane effectively removes dissolved solids, heavy metals, bacteria, and viruses down to a microscopic level.
5. Post Carbon Filter: Polishes the water, removing any remaining odors and tastes, resulting in refreshingly pure drinking water.
